

Prior Learning

- Children know the names of the seven continents and can locate them on a world map.
- The children have a basic understanding of physical and human features.
- The children know that London is the capital city of England.

What is an ocean?

Key Facts

- I can describe an ocean as a huge body of salty water.
- I can describe a continent as a very large area of land, usually surrounded by the sea and containing different countries.
- I can describe a sea as a body of water enclosed by land or between ocean and land.
- I can name the oceans: Pacific, Atlantic, Indian, Southern and Arctic.

The 7 Continents

Oceans

Pacific Ocean—The largest ocean in the world.

Atlantic Ocean—The second largest ocean in the world.

Indian Ocean—The third largest ocean in the world.

Southern Ocean—The second smallest ocean in the world.

Arctic Ocean—The smallest ocean in the world.

Glossary of Vocabulary

Oceans—is a huge body of salty water.

Continent— a very large area of land, usually surrounded by the sea and containing different countries.

Sea— is a body of water enclosed by land or between ocean and land.

Names of oceans : Southern, Pacific, Arctic, Indian and Atlantic

Can you name the oceans around the world?

