

Prior Learning

Children have an understanding that life was different a long time ago. Children can recall some changes that have taken place within their living memory.

*Seaside holidays then & nowKey Facts

- People would wear different clothes to the beach 100 years ago compared with nowadays.
- 100 years ago, people travelled to the seaside by horse and carriage or steam train.
- Seaside holidays became popular in Victorian

Bathing costumes*Donkey rides*Bathing machine*Punch & Judy*Vocabulary

Victorian era—a time in history when Queen Victoria reigned.

Steam train—a train powered by coal.

Holiday—where people go for a short period of time for leisure.

Seaside—a place next to the sea.

Bathing machine—a little hut that was rolled into the water for people to change.