

'My Special Box'

Children to think about and draw pictures of things or people that are special to them. This could include their family, pets, favourite toy, friends etc. Let their imagination go wild! A discussion first may be useful to generate all of the children's ideas. We will share their ideas in class in September. I wonder if anyone else shares the same special things?

